Monica, Sandy and I checked the route in Madison in Sunday.

There is a fair amount of construction going on around the city (what else is new?) however, the directions I put in the newsletter were good as of Sunday. Drake will get you to the starting point, but the roads to the north will not.

Some additional information based on our drive,

After turning onto Drake you will go through ~three stop signs (you will go past the zoo entrance - which is to the left) stay on Drake until you get to Vilas where you will make a left. Approximately 4 blocks later you hit a spot where you have to go left or right (<->) you want to go left (I believe this is Edgewood). This will lead you into the parkway. Parkway is a one way----->>>> we will not exit the same way you came in. Wish for sun....see you there.

Here's an example of a poll based on a real email I received. Should we accept paid sponsorships such as this? (These poll results WON'T really be used for anything!) Dear Wisconsin Go Hiking Club: We are very impressed by your website for hiking enthusiasts in Wisconsin. Because your site compliments many of www.shopzilla.com's categories, we are interested in becoming a sponsor of The Wisconsin Go Hiking Club on a yearly basis. If you could offer us a text link on your homepage or a sponsorship pod in return, we can send you a donation of $500.00 for the initial year. We offer other sponsorship rates depending on the number or types of links that you would be able to provide us with. Created on Nov 4, 2005	6	wi_letterboxer 😊
